

The Lab School

THE LAB SCHOOL NEWS

October 15, 2008

OO

PROGRESSIVE DINNER

The Progressive Dinner date is fast approaching.....NOVEMBER 8! We are still in need of volunteers for the HOST House from each classroom. The Host House will provide a salad, rolls and the set-up for 8-12 people. The Friends of The Lab School will provide the main course. To volunteer please contact Mimi Phelan (909-8019) or Suzy Perry (918-7523). Our appreciation and thanks goes out to those families that have already volunteered: Will & Liz Lauber, Jennifer & Donald Lohman, Angeles & James Dowd-Nieto, Karen & Andrew Fries, Carla & Christopher Grundy and Joanne & Paul Ackermann.

Watch for further information! Get your babysitter now! You don't want to miss this "get acquainted" event.

PARENT TEACHER CONFERENCES: Conference sign-up sheets are posted today. Please take advantage of this time to meet with your child's teacher. Parent's who desire a longer time period to meet with the teachers should make a separate appointment to allow the teacher's time to meet your needs.

CALENDAR REMINDER:

October 16th Book orders are due.

October 18th from 4:00-6:00 is the TRUNK OR TREAT!

October 30th (Thursday) There are no Preschool classes.
Yellow class will be in operation for those families that contracted for the extra days.

October 31st the school is closed for all programs.

Watch for upcoming information on the Annual Fund Drive.

Detach and put in the basket in the hallway

PARENT SURVEY:

I would be interested in attending a parent meeting on the following topics. Please rate 1, 2 and 3 choices.

Young children and

___ sleep issues

___ guidance/discipline

___ typical development

___ temperament/learning styles

___ sibling relationships

Write in your interest area